DeKalb County School District (DCSD) will adjust its make-up schedule for four days of lost instructional time due to Hurricane Irma, following both continuing collaboration between the Board of Education and Superintendent/CEO R. Stephen Green, and focused outreach to stakeholder groups.

DCSD will take the following steps to recover two of the lost instructional days:

- The school day will be extended by 20 minutes from Monday, Oct. 2 to Tuesday, Oct. 31
- Election Day (Tuesday, Nov. 7) will become an instructional day.

The district is now considering the most effective method to recover one or both of the remaining instructional days. To accomplish this, DCSD will seek input directly from its principals, parent groups and community stakeholder groups through Friday, Oct. 13.

That input will be strongly considered by Dr. Green in his final decision, to be announced on Monday, Oct. 16. Per Board policy, Dr. Green is empowered to make “scheduling changes to the school day because of inclement weather or other emergency conditions.”

“Throughout this process, I have been continually working with our Board to distill our various options into the best solution for our students and families. We considered various input and thoughts from across the board. The identification of two make-up opportunities thus far is a good starting point,” said Green. “The final decision will be filtered through a collaborative process driven by one shared desire for both the Board and myself: to protect and recover instructional time, especially for those students most at risk.”

DCSD will embark on an aggressive communications campaign to keep students, parents and the community informed about how this temporary schedule change will impact student transportation, after school programs, and athletics. Those updates will be available via its website and through its mobile app and accounts on Facebook and Twitter.

Saturday October 14th 9am-10.30am

Building on the success of our beautification day in September we're hosting a Courtyard Enhancement planning meeting Saturday October 14th 9am-10.30 where we'll share our vision and initial plans and gather your input on what YOU would like to see in our courtyard.

There will also be an opportunity to do some additional clean up so bring your rakes, shovels and gloves to help maintain the work we started in September to continue to make our school look its best! We truly appreciate all the support so far.

Please email missibea@hotmail.com if you are able to join us.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR SUPPORT!

Important Safety Notice

Parents driving to school - please drive with care and slow down on Seaman Circle as you approach school. A neighbor on Seaman Circle complained to school that she nearly got hit leaving her driveway. We do not want any person, adult or child, to be hurt.

Parents who choose to walk children into school - please understand that this is the reason we continue to ask you to use Miss Penny's crosswalk.

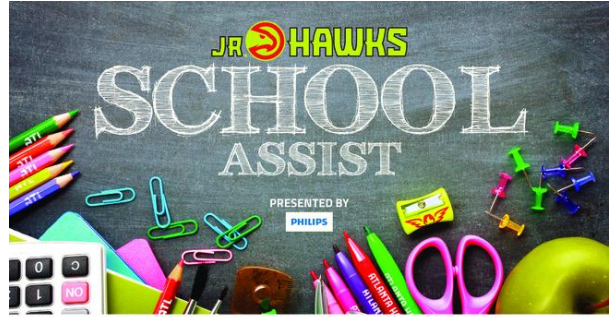

This is for the safety of our children. Thank you.
